

The Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies and its visionary donors realize that the Jewish people need great rabbis now: to access the wisdom of the ages, to build lives and communities of joy and meaning, and to keep our ancient heritage vital. To give everyone access, Ziegler has set tuition to $7,000 per year, with additional assistance available for the Israel year.

Cost for part-time enrollment and enrollment over 23 units is only $600 per credit unit.

Please refer to the Academic Catalog for a full explanation of fees, late fees, course related fees, and other details.
